ORDER :-

In The reference 1st cited, the Secretary, APREIS, Hyderabad has informed the Government that the modalities for conduct of Common Entrance Test, 2009 were discussed in the meeting with the officials of APSWREI Society, APTWREI Society and Tribal Welfare Department and it was felt desirable to have the Common Admission Test for admission of students into Class V only in the Residential Schools under 3 Societies and Ashram Schools under the Department of Tribal Welfare during the year 2009-10 and informed that there are backlog vacancies in Class VI in the Residential Schools under APSWREI Society and APTWREI Society and there was no need for fresh admission in Class VI. The Secretary, APREIS, Hyderabad has submitted the tentative schedule for conduct of the Common Admission Test around 3rd week of June 2009.

2. The Secretary, APREIS, Hyderabad has requested the Government to arrange for issue of orders nominating the organization for conduct of the CAT 2009 with permission to share the incidental expenditure proportionately with reference to the number of schools by the 2 Societies, Tribal Welfare Department and also to meet the expenditure initially by the Society which is nominated for conduct of the CAT 2009 as was done last year.

3. Government after careful examination, hereby accept the above proposal of the Secretary, APREIS, Hyderabad to conduct Common Admission Test, 2009 for admission of students into Class V only in the Residential Schools under 3 Societies and Ashram Schools under the Department of Tribal Welfare during the year 2009-10 and hereby nominate the Secretary, APREIS, Hyderabad as Convener for conduct of CAT 2009 and approve the schedule as indicated below:
